WORK EXPERIENCE

ICT Assistant (Freelance): March 2024 – October 2024,

College of Humanities Secretariat, University of Ghana, Legon

DUTIES

- I provided technical assistance in the facilitation of a workshop for the creation of a Management Information System to promote the digitalization of the Secretariat's mail receipt, processing, and dispatch system.
- I facilitated a workshop on the Mail merge system I created for the college to enhance the creation and dispatch of mail outside the Secretariat.
- I facilitated the reuse of the Annual Provost Awards Excel form for the 2024 Provost Awards data collation.

ICT Assistant (National Service Personnel): November 2022 - October 2023,

ICT Assistant (National Service Extension): October 2023 - February 2024,

College of Humanities Secretariat, University of Ghana, Legon

DUTIES

- General HR and Administration duties such as vetting application forms pertaining to the appointment of Lecturers, Senior Lecturers, Professors, Visiting Scholars, etc.
- Data analysis, data entry, and technical work pertaining to the repair and maintenance of computers and other technological equipment.

INNOVATIONS

- I designed an Excel Visual Basic Form for the University of Ghana College of Humanities Secretariat to enter data and automatically deposit the data into an Excel database and perform the necessary calculations, to be used in storing the data needed for the Provost Awards Ceremony.
- I designed a Search Form in Excel for the University of Ghana College of Humanities Secretariat to make it easier to search for items listed in a journal database using various criteria in the list.

- I created a Google form to be accessed via QR Code to increase the work pace during the collection of Student ID cards at the University of Ghana Business School in March 2023.
- I designed a Mail merge system for the College of Humanities Secretariat to enhance the creation and dispatch of mail outside the Secretariat.
- I designed an Excel form to collate data to be used for the Annual Provost Awards for the College of Humanities Secretariat. The Excel form was designed to be reusable, as it was used for two consecutive years during the Annual Provost Awards.
- I built 2 reusable websites for the Academic Affairs Office of the College of Humanities to be used in the collection of ID cards by students to search for the availability of their ID cards. (The idea was adopted by the University and implemented across the various schools of the University.)
- I supervised the organization of an exhibition by the College of Humanities, which involved ensuring all requirements to hold the event were in place, and also taking roll of all attendees, which I did through the creation of virtual forms to prevent waste of paper.

3D Creator (Freelance): October 2022 – December 2023

Remote

DUTIES

- Private individuals and contractors employed me to create and animate 3D models for activities, which include final year project work and advertisements to promote businesses.

Script Checker: 2019

West African Examinations Council

DUTIES

- I was tasked with combing through scripts of students who had written the West African Senior School Certificate Examinations, looking for errors in the marking of scripts and collating marks allotted to the scripts and submitting the checked scripts to supervisors for further processing.

Library/Lab Manager: 2016 – 2018
